KMK Attorney to Lead Workshop Guiding Construction Professionals through Practical Filing and Enforcing Construction Liens & Bonds

Kohner, Mann & Kailas shareholder David S. Chartier will lead a workshop providing step-by-step guidance in the rules and the forms necessary to file and benefit from construction lien and bond claims. Special emphasis will be placed on timing requirements and collection alternatives available to subcontractors and material suppliers. Recent changes in lien laws will be explained. Wisconsin lien and bond forms will be reviewed, providing hands-on experience in customizing them for your particular needs. David will provide tools to determine when a lien or bond claim is "good," how to protect claims by giving the right notices, filing the lien and suing, if necessary and a number of other methods to avoid obstacles to successfully benefiting from construction liens and bonds.

David will conduct the workshop in Oshkosh on September 11, Oconomowoc on September 16 and in Madison on November 18, each sponsored by the Wisconsin Credit Association. To learn more, visit www.wcacredit.org.

About Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C.

Founded in 1937, KMKSC is a business and commercial law firm listed in Martindale-Hubbell's Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers. KMKSC provides quality legal expertise across the areas of law encountered by businesses in the normal course of their operations and growth. Our services range from high-profile appellate representation and international business issues to ensuring that critical everyday needs, such as debt recovery, are fulfilled efficiently and expertly. Our purpose is to deliver excellent results for our clients, whether the issue is advice on the avoidance of legal disputes, closing a deal, protecting assets or winning in court. KMKSC is continually advancing the interests of its clients in negotiations, transactions, litigation and alternative dispute forums across North American and beyond. We help U.S. companies address the legal issues raised by trading across international borders and provide legal support and advice to foreign companies operating in American markets.
