KMK Attorney to Speak to Wisconsin Credit Association on Tactics for Business Executives faced with Bulk Sales & Customer Receivership Notices

Kohner, Mann & Kailas Shareholder David Chartier will be sharing some of the insights gained during three decades of successfully protecting the interests of business creditors through good economic times and bad.

David will preside over a "lunch and Learn" sessions in Muskego. The focus will be on preparing business people to successfully protect their company's interests when a Bulk Sale Notice, or notice of a customer's receivership is received.

David will also focus on how to recognize and react to other warning signs that a customer is going out of business.
