Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C. of Milwaukee, WI Joins The International Society of Primerus Law Firms

Grand Rapids MI—The law firm of Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C. has been accepted into membership by the International Society of Primerus Law Firms, a highly selective alliance of small to medium-size, independent law firms.

Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C. is a business transactions, commercial finance and litigation law firm that provides clients with cost-effective legal support for their business operations.

Since 1937, Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C. (KMKSC), has provided the legal and transactional skills necessary to support their clients' business needs and objectives. KMKSC offers an experienced and sophisticated team able to adapt its services to the particular business issues of their clients. It has the resources and expertise necessary to serve the complex needs of its Fortune 500 clients, along with a knowledge of business realities that ensures competitive support for small private clients as well. Services range from complex business litigation, appellate representation and international business issues to ensuring that critical everyday needs, such as liquidation of corporate debt throughout North America, are fulfilled efficiently and expertly. Whether the issue is advice on the avoidance of legal disputes, closing a deal, protecting assets or winning in court, KMKSC has a reputation of achieving excellent results in local, national and transnational business disputes and transactions.

Primerus is a network of top-quality, independent law firms that are vetted and accredited for membership based on their commitment to rigorous standards based on the following six principles: integrity, excellence of work product, reasonable fee structure, professional education, civility, and community service.

“We are proud to welcome Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C., to our organization,” says John C. Buchanan, president of Primerus. “This firm has not only passed our rigorous screening process, but has distinguished itself as a firm delivering legal services of the highest standards. Clients can be assured that in Kohner, Mann & Kailas, S.C. they will find trustworthy, experienced lawyers who uphold the highest standards of our profession.”

Steve Kailas, President of Kohner, Mann and Kailas, stated “[o]ur law firm joined Primerus because, while there are many legal networks, Primerus goes well beyond what we had come to expect of such associations. Primerus is dedicated to providing national legal services that combine the proven skills and fee structures of its members with the intimacy and quality of service that is the hallmark of smaller firms. The result is a unique opportunity to provide national service across the full spectrum of business legal issues, supported by a credible guarantee of uniform quality. Significantly we have spoken with decision makers from nationally recognized corporations that have recognized this, and already turn to Primerus members as a real alternative to big national and regional law firms. This was too good an opportunity to pass up, both for KMKSC and for its clients.”
